

My time at Jesmond Miranda Nursing Home has already given me experience managing complex routines and high responsibility tasks in a busy environment. As an Assistant, I handle electronic medication administration with BESTMED and documentation so nurses and families can depend on what is recorded. In between medication rounds, I provide hands on care such as hygiene support and feeding, which has taught me to move efficiently while still being gentle and observant. During